Dick:

The meeting with Oregon Congressional Delegation members has been moved from Saturday to Thursday (tomorrow) at 2. We have insisted that Oregon officials be invited and I understand an invitation went out to the Governor's Office this afternoon. We also asked that the event not be a round table with press but rather a briefing for the members who could then do press afterward if they choose. They have agreed to that. I hope you can make the briefing as it's an opportunity to show them all you are doing and for us to show support for that.

Hi Dennis,

Marianne asked I send you directions to the Congressional Meeting tomorrow in relation to your hotel. The meeting is at the Bonneville Power Administration, at 911 NE 11th Ave, Room 630 on the 6th floor, which is the Lloyd Center stop on the Max Line on the east side of the Willamette River. BPA is south of the Max Line, opposite direction of the shopping mall. You are staying at the Marriott on the west side of the river, which is the Yamhill District Max Station. Below is a screen shot of both locations, please don't hesitate to ask if you need anything else.
